Police Explorer advisor to leave Apopka force in deal to drop charges counseling if the victim wants it, said Assistant State Attorney Mark Bender.

During the probation, Oldroyd will not be allowed to have unsupervised visits with anyone under age 18, except for relatives, Bender said. That would include taking any jobs that require unsupervised contact with minors, he said.

Oldroyd currently is working for an insurance company, his attorney said. The investigation started when the Explorer's parents complained to the Apopka Police Department in March that Oldroyd "had overstepped his boundaries" as assistant advisor to the Explorer post. Oldroyd had approached teachers at Apopka Memorial Middle School about setting up classes for the boy to attend without telling the parents, the complaint said.

On March 22, the department removed Oldroyd from his position as advisor to the Explorers, a club for youths interested in law enforcement.

The two counts of lewd assault on a child and one battery charge stemmed from a complaint from the boy that Oldroyd grabbed him in the groin when the two were wrestling.

Lubet said that Oldroyd "still proclaims his innocence in this matter, but feels this (agreement) would be in his best interest."

"In Rob's opinion, innocent acts were blown out of proportion" and may have been misread, Lubet said. "Rob still denies that anything sexual was ever done."

Bender said the state agreed to drop the felony charges because the boy and his mother were hesitant to prosecute the case. "Obviously, in any case like this ... victims don't want to be put on the witness stand," he said.

In a separate agreement with the city of Apopka, Oldroyd will resign his position as dispatcher by Friday.

"They agreed to leave him alone and he agreed to leave them alone," Lubet said.

I appreciate the material you have sent concerning the above named individual. The material received so far certainly supports our refusal of registration for Mr. Oldroyd. He did admit to a homosexual affair with another adult. This is in addition to the charges of having sex with youth.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed to the best of your ability, so that we may identify Mr. Oldroyd should he attempt registration in the future.

We would also like to have a copy of a paper with his signature, if you have this available.

Thanks for your careful help in compiling these files. We would like to have the outcome of the legal action now pending once it has been completed.

Thanks again for your help in protecting the youth of America.

Dear Mr. Oldroyd:

Our letter to you of May 3, 1989, relative to suspension of your registration stands as it is written.

Please be advised that this is the policy of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America and that absolutely no variation or compromise of the original decision is possible except thru procedures as outlined in my letter to you.

Since this is a question of policy of the Boy Scouts of America and not a legal matter, direct response to your attorney is not appropriate.

Dear Mr. Oldroyd:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are, therefore, compelled to request that you sever any relations you may have with the Boy Scouts of America. Attached you will find a check in the amount of $7.00 which represents a refund of your registration.

You should understand that BSA membership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of membership the BSA seeks to provide for American youth.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed by a Council Review Committee, please write to me, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA member should be reinstated.

Sincerely,

RE: Letter from Marc L. Lubet

The attached letter ("A") is self-explanatory. I am also attaching our previous file related to Mr. Oldroyd ("B").

After consulting with our National Office, I suggest that our response be as follows:

- A. Do not respond to Mr. Lubet directly but rather to Mr. Oldroyd with a copy to Mr. Lubet.
- B. Response letter should be from Jon Sleik with basic wording as attached in "C".

I will await advice of David Hedrick and/or Bill Trickett and also approval of Jon Sleik before mailing response.

Dear Mr. Sleik:

Please be advised that this firm represents Robert J. Oldroyd. I have reviewed a letter dated May 3, 1989, from yourself addressed to Mr. Oldroyd, which suspends his registration with the Boy Scouts of America. You state in your letter that you reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of membership the Boy Scouts of America seeks to provide for the American youth.

As a former Boy Scout myself, I fully understand your concern, but as I recall, when I was a Boy Scout there was also a concern over the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of Florida, and preserving to each person in this country the right to be considered innocent until proven guilty. At this time I cannot explain Mr. Oldroyd's version of the facts to you as there are pending, though not filed, criminal charges against Mr. Oldroyd. Until those are resolved in his favor, I ethically cannot consider any statements by Mr. Oldroyd being given to you. I do think that Mr. Oldroyd's registration as a member of the Boy Scouts of America has been wrongfully and hastily suspended as there are no allegations against Mr. Oldroyd of any validity and there certainly has been no proof against him in a Court of law.

In asking the Council Review Committee to review your decision to suspend his membership, I am simply asking the Committee to give the benefit of the doubt to someone who has been a valued and loyal member of the Boy Scouts of America for a reasonable amount of time, and who has done great service through his membership for youths in the Central Florida Community. I am sure that the Council Review Committee realizes that in our system of government, where we have an absolute Constitutional Right to free speech, anyone can be accused of anything, but proof is quite a different matter.

By way of compromise, I would request that you reinstate Mr. Oldroyd's registration with the Boy Scouts of America, but place it on an inactive status wherein he would still be a registered member until such time as his actions have been proven not to measure up to the high standards of membership of the Boy Scouts of America, or he is cleared of the allegations against him. In an inactive status, he would not take any action on behalf of the Boy Scouts of America nor act in any way which would affect the Boy Scouts of America, but still would be a registered member. This is something he is extremely proud of and deems to be very important in his life.

Thank you for your consideration of these matters.

Very truly yours,

CONF011204

Police dispatcher charged with sex assault on teen

By Lauren Ritchie and Sharon McBreen

OF THE SENTINEL STAFF

State prosecutors Friday charged an Apopka police dispatcher with lewd and lascivious assault on a 15-year-old member of the department's Explorer post.

Robert Oldroyd, 25, is off the job without pay. The investigation started when the boy's parents complained in mid-March of "a possible sexual" relationship between their son and the dispatcher, who advises the Explorer post.

Mark Blechman, one of Oldroyd's attorneys, said the dispatcher "categorically denies each of the charges, 100 percent. He's going to fight."

The investigation into Oldroyd's conduct triggered an inquiry that led to the resignation of Deputy Tom Woodard from the Orange County Sheriff's Office.

During questioning about the boy last month, Oldroyd said he had had an affair with Woodard.

Woodard is not accused of wrongdoing with children.

Both men admitted during the sheriff's internal affairs investigation that they had a homosexual encounter about 1½ years ago. Woodard said he resigned under pressure on April 27 but is seeking reinstatement. His attorney is expected to file a lawsuit on his behalf next week.

Oldroyd was suspended Thursday after the state attorney's office alerted Apopka police that the

Please see POLICE, D-5

POLICE

from D-1

charges, which include two counts of lewd behavior and one count of battery, would be filed.

Oldroyd was out of town and unavailable for comment. He had not been arrested as of late Friday night.

The parents of the Apopka Memorial Middle School student complained in mid-March that their son has been "taken from their home against their will" by Oldroyd, according to a police report.

On March 22, the department moved Oldroyd from his position as an adviser to the Explorer post, a club for youths interested in law enforcement.

"It has been brought to my attention by parents of one of the Explorers that you have used intimidation methods to make their son respond to you in ways that are not beneficial to the police Explorers, police department or yourself in general," wrote Cpl. C.E. Mort.

Three weeks later, Oldroyd asked to be relieved of his position as supervisor of communications and placed back on a regular dispatcher shift.

Oldroyd, a graduate of Winter Park High School, has a clean work record that contains two letters of commendation for his handling of an incident involving a stolen car.

Oldroyd worked for Apopka police from 1984 to 1986 but left for a better-paying job. In January 1987 the department hired him away from the Orange County Fire Department.
